In Dedication

Bruce Hinkley

During the 1974-75 school year, sorrow filled the halls of PHS with the loss of Bruce Hinkley, a student who was loved by all. Not only was Bruce a fine student, but also a great athlete and a wonderful guy just to be around. Many people at PHS were hurt very deeply by the death of Bruce, for he was a person with many friends. He will be remembered always. So we, the 1975 Annual Staff, wish to dedicate this book to Bruce Hinkley.

Class

MARCIA TRINE - VALEDICTORIAN

Marcia Trine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trine, has earned the honorary position of Valedictorian of the class of 1975. Throughout her four years of high school she has achieved math, Spanish, GAA, and band awards. Marcia has been a member of the PHS cheerleading squad and was the band's feature twirler for three years. Adding to her list of experiences, Marcia was crowned Miss Hillsdale County Tip-up Queen in February. As were most of the top ten students, she was selected to appear in the "Who's Who Among American High School Students," a nationwide annual of top honor youths. Because of Marcia's experience as being the Editor-in-Chief of the school newspaper and a correspondent to the Hillsdale Daily News for two years, she has decided upon a career in journalism.

Gwen Bellman Chosen Homecoming Queen

Homecoming provides an evening of excitement, beauty, music and yes . . . surprises. Below the two teams battle on the gridiron. The PHS band gives the evening a musical background (right). Underclassman queens and escorts provide glamour to the scene. They are Karen White and Brent Hukill (freshmen), Lori Burkhardt and Doug Borton (sophomores), Lisa Burkhardt and Dick Varner (juniors), (bottom right). Of course the most exciting moment of the evening is the crowning of the PHS queen. Here Gwen Bellman expresses her feeling of surprise (bottom left).

Music Moves the "Masses"

PHS dudes and chicks dig music, but a radio never gives the same effect as a live band. To calm the natives, the Student Council hired a Campus Life group known as "Trademark," (bottom), as well as a one-man act, Charles Bissett (top left), who sang to a songtrack. At Homecoming the lead singer of "Smack Dab" (middle left) belts out a tune that set four Juniors' toes tapping (middle right).

PHS Portrait

Cindy Bogucki and Ann Gould warm-up enthusiastically before half-time (middle right).

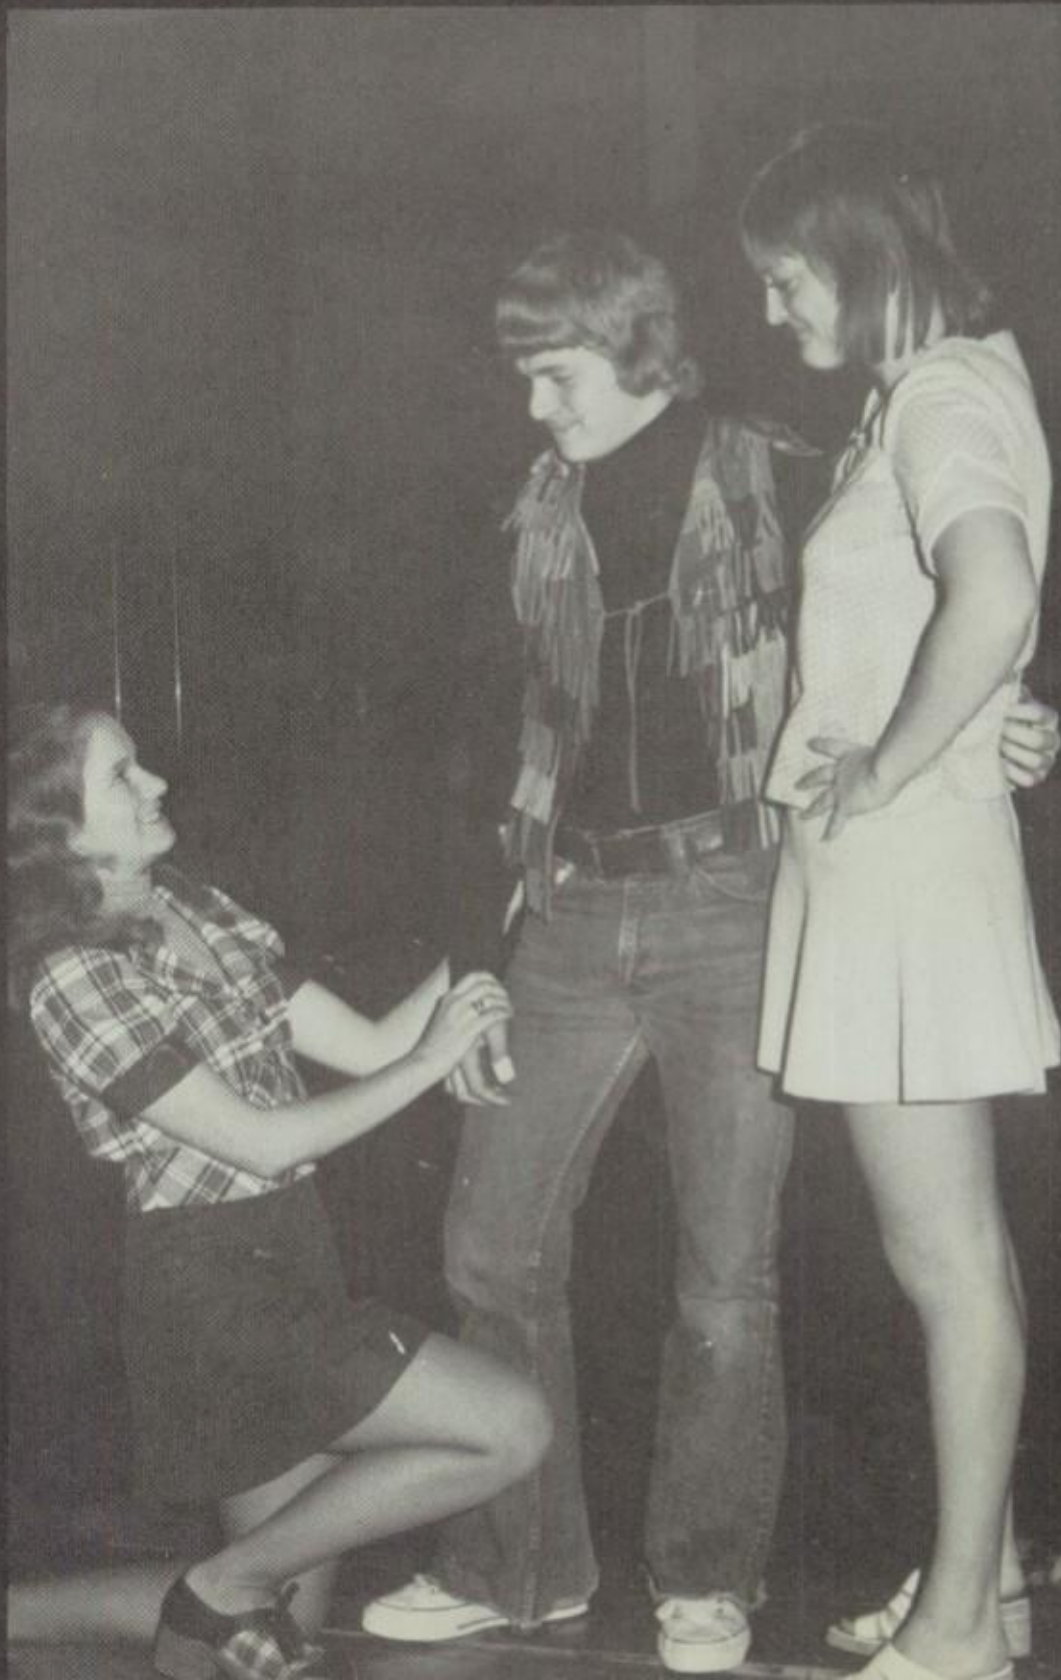

When PHS returned to school last fall they found a huge wavy bump that ran the length of the gym. Although it was caused by a water problem, one person thought that a giant mole had tunneled under the floor (bottom).

Theater Arts

Presents . . .

The 1974-75 Theater Arts Class presented a three-act comedy entitled "It Happens Every Summer." What happens every summer? A New York magazine is over-run with temporary editors who literally "won" their positions in a contest held each summer. Dora Letherer plays a famous beautician who thinks one of the "temporaries" - Pam Bastein, would look better with shorter locks (top right). George Hoard admires his make-up job (middle left). Sandy Carr, a star-struck student expresses awe of Kip Spahr, a rock star, while girlfriend, Jill Nye, looks on (middle right). Fickle, Southern gal, played by Cathy Ruth is in a pickle as her four beaus lay claim to her (bottom).

Humanitarians Enjoy Giving

Humanitarians find it more blessed to give than to receive, and the recipients seemed to also to share the blessings.
